

The Herald and News

Death of an Infant.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Earhardt died at their residence Friday night, 17th inst. The little one was buried Saturday afternoon at Rosemont Cemetery.

Abrams-Lee.

Mr. Jas. H. Abrams and Miss Lily Lee were married at the home of the bride in Union County on Wednesday, 12th inst. Sheriff Buford of this city attended the marriage and reports a most delightful time.

Will Douglas Shot.

Saturday night Mr. Cannon G. Blease and Will Douglas, colored, had some words, when Mr. Blease pulled his pistol and shot Douglas in the left thigh. The ball went through the leg and Douglas is pretty badly hurt. We suppose the affair will be aired in the courts, hence will not go into details here.

She Didn't Wear a Mask

But her beauty was completely hidden by sores, blotches and pimples till she used Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Then they vanished, as will all Eruptions, Fever Sores, Boils, Ulcers, Carbuncles and Pelons from its use. Infallible for Cuts, Corns, Burns, Scalds and Piles. Cure guaranteed. 25c at all druggists.

County Pension Board.

The County Pension Board was in session pretty well all day yesterday considering claims for pensions. As a result of the day's work 10 claims were approved and 6 disapproved. Three were passed over to be acted on at a future meeting of the board. During the past year nine persons who have been drawing pensions died.

The board will meet again next Monday, and this will be the last meeting at which applicants can put in claims.

Old Soldier's Experience.

M. M. Austin, a civil war veteran, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "My wife was sick a long time in spite of good doctor's treatment, but was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills, which worked wonders for her health." They always do. Try them. Only 25c at all druggists.

Always in a Rush.

One of our exchanges says: A newspaper is always printed in a rush. There is always something in it that should be left out, and something left out that should be put in. It is something too quick to act, but with its faults and shortcomings, there is more education in a bright newspaper than there is in any novel. You will find the brightest boy on practical, sensible, every-day questions is the boy who reads the newspapers.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phoebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do as my housework." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at all druggists.

A Nest Store.

Messrs. E. A. Griffin and Son now have one of the neatest and most complete stores in the up-country. The interior of the store has been neatly painted and neat and convenient shelving and boxes arranged in a manner pleasing to the eye as well as convenient to the clerks and customers. The stock has also been renovated and replenished and everything is up-to-date. Messrs. B. F. Griffin, Jno. B. Griffin and J. T. Mayes are always present and pleased to serve their friends. Call around and visit the new firm, they will be pleased to welcome you.

Exposure to Wet.

dampness and cold, invariably results in a sudden chill, which if not attended to immediately will cause a cold. By mixing a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Painkiller in half a glass of warm water or milk, the whole system will be heated and the danger of cold averted. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'. Price 25c. and 50c.

"Music Has Charms."

Who is there that does not like music—and especially fine music? "A Breezy Time" has a fine brass band and orchestra, playing nothing but the very best selections, and those who want to hear will have a chance at the opera house Saturday night.

"A Serious Thought."

There are moments in every man's life when he looks for something to turn his thoughts from the serious side thereof. In this respect nothing is more suited than a good, first-class farce comedy. We have it. "A Breezy Time," complete with comedians, actors and singers, and its own silver-toned band. At opera house Saturday night.

"LADIES TO DO WRITING AT HOME. TWENTY DOLLARS A MONTH."

Joel E. Smith Arrested by Government Officials for Using the Mails for Fraudulent Purposes

Chattanooga, Tenn., Jan. 18.—Post-office inspector in charge, Williams, has been notified by Inspector Peer, that Joel E. Smith, editor of a weekly publication at Monticello, Fla., has been taken into custody charged with using the mails for fraudulent purposes. Smith, it is charged, has been advertising "for ladies to do writing at home," and offering them $20 a month for their services. He has been held in a bond of $1,000.

The Negro Caught.

In our last paper we mentioned a robbery that had occurred at Mr. S. B. Jones' store, and also stated that the police were working up the case. Chief Hunter and his assistants have succeeded in capturing the guilty party who turns out to be Jack Williams, one of the colored work hands about the store. He was shadowed by the police from the very time the robbery occurred until captured at the train the next night while attempting to leave the town, when sufficient property was found on his person to prove him the thief. He finally broke down and confessed the robbery.

A Fall that Resulted in Death.

Ruff Turner, colored, who has been living on the M. E. Gilliam place, was in Newberry Christmas eve and loaded up pretty well with Christmas whistles. On his way home, while near the railroad crossing at Jalapa he fell from his wagon and was hurt. From the time he fell until he died on last Saturday he never recovered the use of his body.

A DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT.

To be Given Under the Auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mr. D. L. Leftwich, one of the most delightful entertainers ever heard, will appear at the opera house on the evening of February 3rd, under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy. The object of the entertainment is to raise funds with which to mark 13 Confederate graves that are unmarked in Rosemont Cemetery. The opera house should be packed as it never was before.

Reserved seats 35c, general admission 25c.

THE MOST DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT EVER HEARD.

Mr. Douglas Lee Leftwich is by far the most delightful entertainer I have ever heard. He brings before his audience a vivid picture of the conditions which existed in the South many years ago, and which are now rapidly passing away. His conception of the old-time darkey is excellent and his delineation of negro dialect is perfect. It is refreshing to note the naturalness of Mr. Leftwich as contrasted with the labored efforts of many who appear before the public in the role of minstrel or impersonator of the Negro. Mr. Leftwich affords an evening of wholesome mirth. His songs, jokes and recitations are chaste and beautiful. I have heard him often and never has there been any feature which would be objected to in a church entertainment. I most cordially commend him to the public.

A BAD NEGRO.

"Crick" Young Was Hard to Catch—Magistrate Chappell Gives the County the Benefit of his Evil Doing.

For several days the citizens of ward four have been terribly disturbed by a loafing negro, "Crick" Young. His wife or concubine cooks for Mr. W. T. Tarrant, and because she did not do to suit the loafer he gave her a severe whipping at Mr. Tarrant's back gate on the 16th of this month, and continuously since that time he has been standing around the over-head bridge where he could see the approach of the officers, when he would break through some one's back yard and make good his escape.

On last Thursday evening just as magistrate Chappell was going home he saw the notorious "Crick" beating his wife again at Mr. Tarrant's back gate. The magistrate jumped from his buggy and made for "Crick," who ran through the Mazy back yard, thence through Dr. Pope's yard, jumping wire fences as he went until he got finally away. The next day he came back to Mr. Tarrant's again and Chief Hunter, assisted by Mr. B. T. Bishop, gave him a tremendous race through Factory Hill, and one of the citizens seeing the negro running and being pursued by the officer undertook to head him. The desperate negro at once drew his pistol and the citizen having no fire arms stood back, and again "Crick" made his escape. So when magistrate Chappell went home Saturday night he told his constable, C. G. Blease, that when he came to his office Monday morning he wanted him to have "Crick" there waiting for him. The constable was equal to the emergency. So he got policeman Franklin and his best man, Mr. B. T. Bishop, to assist him. When the magistrate came to his office Monday morning Mr. Blease very gracefully presented the desperate to magistrate Chappell, who gave "Crick" thirty days on the county chain gang at hard labor for seven different offences which is a total of two hundred and ten days.

So the county gets the benefit of "Crick's" wrong doings, and the people all say good for magistrate Chappell.

An Exercise in Spelling.

Some of you who think you are well up in spelling, just try to spell the words in this little sentence: "It is agreeable to witness the unparalleled ecstasy of two harassed peddlers endeavoring to gauge the symmetry of two peeled pears." Read it over to your friends and see how many can spell every word correctly. The sentence contains many of the real puzzlers of the spelling book.—Ex.

Little Oscar—Our Angel One.

Only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Zobel who died at Helena, January 12, 1902. Aged 3 years and two months.

He was nearing childhood's happy age. We joyed to think it nigh; And did not think that ere it came He would be called to die; But, when the angels came for him He gladly went on high.

To be himself an Angel, where He'll join the Angel's song, There blessed song of peace, Oh, there We'll join him. Is it wrong To offer up to God our prayer, That though the time be long.

We'll surely see our cherub child, His joyful song we'll hear, And that, among the Angel band, We'll know our one so dear; Until that time, Lord, let us feel He is not far, but near.

Tot Causes Night Alarm.

"One night my brother baby was taken with Croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Sinder, of Crittenden, Ky., "it seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from Croup and Whooping Cough. It cured me of a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve." Infallible for Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

The Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price per pound, and is cheaper and better at its price than any similar article in the world. It makes more, better and more healthful food.
